The voices of Heritage Park residents, stakeholders, and interested parties are important to us. These conversations will help establish the foundation of what we hope to be a frequent and continued community engagement throughout the redevelopment process.

This planning is in the early stages and construction is not anticipated to begin yet. Redevelopment plans are not imminent and no one should begin preparing for relocation at this time.

Questions and comments can be submitted electronically to heritageparkinfo@rhaonline.com. We look forward to hearing your thoughts and we are eager to use your feedback as we shape the new Heritage Park together.
