

Bahati Mutisya

Bahati Mutisya is a Raleigh native and healthcare attorney who represents health care providers in legal proceedings and helps them navigate complex regulatory requirements.

Outside of health care, Ms. Mutisya has counseled private businesses and local governments in regulatory issues and civil litigation. She has assisted municipalities with land use regulation, advised real estate developers on compliance with local zoning laws, and defended developers in real property litigation. Her pro bono work has included advocating for and advising tenants on their rights through the Lawyer on the Line Program.

Ms. Mutisya earned her law degree from Wake Forest University School of Law, where she served as editor-in-chief of the Wake Forest Journal of Law & Policy, president of the Immigration Law Society, and secretary and mock trial team member for the Black Law Students Association. She earned her Bachelor of Science in business administration with honors from Carnegie Mellon University.