

Gregg Warren

Gregg Warren joined the RHA Board in 2019. Gregg recently retired after serving over 34 years as President of DHIC, Inc. DHIC is a Raleigh based non-profit that develops affordable housing and provides financial capability training to potential first time homebuyers. Under Gregg's leadership DHIC developed 45 rental communities with over 2,400 apartments. DHIC established its reputation as an innovative, leading developer (and largest owner) of affordable housing in the Triangle area.

On a limited basis, Mr. Warren currently does consulting work to clients who he believes are making significant changes to the Triangle's affordable housing ecosystem. Early in his career, he was the first Executive Director of the Chatham County Housing Authority.
